Leader: Tonight the Lord steps into his world to taste its air, to listen to the thoughts of youth, and to instill the visions and dreams of tomorrow. Let us spin our dreams.

People: We would dream of the day people will respect life, and celebrate it as a precious gift.

Leader: We would dream of the day when all people will know they are beautiful, red, yellow, brown, black or white.

People: And of the day when nations shall not lift up sword against nation.

Leader: We would dream of the day when parents will sense the uniqueness of each child,

People: And of the day when youth glimpse the face of God in their patient parents.

Leader: We would dream of the day we could become as free as that man Jesus Christ.

People: We know someday people will live like this and we would begin now.
