CALL TO WORSHIP Susan Baldus

"Faith in Myself" by Marjorie Holmes

RESPONSIVE READING (Congregation still standing) Timothy Wong

Excerpt from "The Prophet" by Kahlil Gibran

Leader: And a woman who held a babe against her bosom said, Speak to us of Children.

And he said:

Your children are not your children.

People: They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.

Leader: They come through you but not from you,

People: And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

Leader: You may give them your love but not your thoughts,

People: For they have their own thoughts.

Leader: You may house their bodies but not their souls,

People: For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.

Leader: You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.

People: For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

Leader: You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.

People: The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.

Leader: Let your bending in the Archer's hand be for gladness;

People: For even as he loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN (All standing)

“We Gather Together” Anonymous, 1625
Tr. Theodore Baker

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens his will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing:
Sing praises to his Name; he forgets not his own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining his kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning:
Thou, Lord, wast at our side: all glory be thine!

We all do extol thee, thou leader triumphant,
And pray that thou still our defender wilt be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation:
Thy Name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!

Amen.

(Audience please be seated)

The end has come
 But, a beginning too
 Like daisies in the sun
 We have grown
 And we will continue to grow . . .
 We will stop growing only when we stop loving
 But when we have stopped loving
 We have stopped listening
 And when we have stopped listening
 We have not learned . . .
